

Topic Time-limited social network	Author Angel F. Zayas	Date January 20, 2021
Problem Background <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sharing everything online has become second nature, but has also made most posts seem irrelevant.</li> <li>• The spread of content of questionable nature has been rampant in recent years.</li> </ul>	Countermeasures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand the target population and how the service would be welcomed.</li> <li>• Interview and analyze the population using existing alternatives.</li> <li>• Develop a local demo.</li> <li>• Promote the platform among a control group.</li> </ul>
Target <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• News outlet</li> <li>• Common social media users</li> </ul>	Check/Evaluate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Another social media to share ideas can be welcomed.</li> <li>• It could be free of competition if the idea is well executed.</li> </ul>
Causes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A thought posted online can be diluted if mixed with thousands of incoming posts.</li> <li>• Platform would allow for the sharing and liking of already posted content outside of “posting hours.” allowing for ideas to potentially reach more people.</li> <li>• Limited expressions could give more value to every word said.</li> </ul>	Act/Standardize <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Offer the social network in many regions.</li> <li>• Each region would post at certain times, depending on when “posting hours” would fall on each time region.</li> <li>• Especially with the current political landscape, make sure the content is regulated and meets legal standards of online speech</li> </ul>	